CALLS FOR EXPRESSION OF INTEREST

LORNE STREET AND PINE SIDE ROAD BUY BACK CENTRE

In terms of its commitment to Waste Reduction and Recycling, the Association of Clean Communities Trust proposes to re-establish a Community Buy Back Centre at Pine Side Road (New Germany) and Lorne Street (Warwick Triangle). It is envisaged that the Buy Back Centres will be re-established to complement the existing network of recycling initiatives. Entrepreneurs contracted to the Trust will operate the Centres. The purpose of this advertisement is to invite all individuals/groups/organisations/businesses who are interested in the following aspect of the project:

- Sourcing, Sorting, Storage and Sale of recyclables
- Maintain cleanliness of the Buy back Centre
- Setting up, managing and monitoring operations of the Buy back Centre
- Waste Reduction and Recycling
- Ensuring orderly arrangement and streamlining of recyclable items
- Firm compliance with Municipal By-laws regarding acceptable Waste

Management Practices.

- Implement operational systems for running Buy Back Centre
- Employ applicable human resource management systems
- Networking with individuals/groups/organisations/businesses involved in recycling.

The objectives of the project include: Employment Creation, Small Business Development and the Empowerment of previously disadvantaged individuals. Interested individuals / groups / organisations / businesses should submit written expressions of interest outlining their involvement in Recycling and a detailed CV/Business Proposal. They must also complete a questionnaire obtainable from the Trust. All documents must be submitted at: DSW Education and Waste Minimisation (The Association of Clean Communities Trust) 188 Sandile Thusi Rd (Argyle Rd), Morningside.
